

Lowell High School Regiment Field Day

Young Soldiers Made Fine Appearance

OFFICERS OF THE LOWELL HIGH SCHOOL REGIMENT

Spalding park was the scene this afternoon of the thirty-first Field Day of the Lowell High school and the exercises were witnessed by one of the largest, if not the very largest, crowd ever seen at Spalding park. It was a pretty picture that was presented there and the only complaint to effect was that there were too few seats to accommodate the thousands who gathered there. There was no admission charge as in days of yore and long before the time set for the beginning of the exercises the bleachers were filled by those who had taken time by the forelock, so to speak, and who had arrived sufficiently early to "cop the bleachers." A great many were unable to procure seats and to those who were obliged to stand the affair did not appear so strongly as to those who were fortunate enough to obtain seats.

In the little editorial in the official program it was stated that Field Day had come again "with its glamour and its glory" and there was no doubt about its being a scene of gay color and great activity was presented and the high school regiment carried new laurels for it was undoubtedly the greatest field day in the history of the school. The exercises were witnessed by more than 5000 people and there was no dearth of appreciation. Besides the special cars that carried the spectators to the park the parking space between the entrance to the park and the grand stand was filled with automobiles and teams.

In accordance with the edict issued by Principal Irish of the Lowell High school yesterday, all the pupils assembled at the school at the usual time this morning and shortly after reporting to assembly was due to the fact that if the weather conditions were unfavorable, the school session would be held. As the weather was favorable the pupils went to their homes, after being instructed to report at the school at 12:30 for the field day exercises.

At 12:30 all assembled at the annex on Kirk street and after the companies in the two battalions of the regiment were assigned to their respective positions, they were reviewed by the drum-major, Charles P. Miner, who is in charge of the march to the grounds.

The girls assembled at the same time and they took the cars to the grounds, leaving the corner of Kirk and Paige streets shortly after the start of the parade. The girls were prettily attired in white dresses.

The Parade

The parade started shortly after one o'clock. Col. Arthur J. Kerrigan led the procession and was followed by Lieut. Col. Lawrence F. Safford and Major Ralph Fletcher. The Lowell Cadet band followed and as the march was started the band struck up "Our Director." After the companies of the first battalion, came the battalion hospital corps.

The second battalion was headed by the life and drum corps, under the direction of Drum Major Charles P. Miner, and for an opening it played "Every Little Movement Has a Meaning of Its Own." Companies E, F, G, H, and the hospital corps followed. The members of the regiment were attired in their full regimental dress, wearing blue coats, white trousers and brown leggings.

Along the line of march, large crowds assembled and as the procession passed the marchers were frequently applauded. Although the other schools did not suspend sessions, about all the pupils were down town to witness the parade. The time was so arranged that all might see the marchers and return in time for the afternoon session of the school.

After leaving the annex the procession went up Kirk street to Merrimack, to Central, to Church, to Andover, to High, to Rogers, to the grounds. The manner in which the different companies turned the corners of the downtown streets would do credit to permanent military companies.

At Spalding Park

The procession was well timed and it was shortly before two o'clock when Spalding park was reached. Here there was a large attendance and when the boys arrived they were given a great cheer. The teachers of the school were at the grounds as well as the members of the school committee and numerous spectators. The attendance was notably increased in numbers this year, this being unquestionably due to the fact that no admission was charged. The parents of the pupils of the schools were very enthusiastic and the scene at the grounds was a lively one.

The companies were assigned to their special sections and given a short time to rest after their long walk to the grounds.

The Maypole Dance

Owing to the fact that the girls' calisthenics are being held in conjunction with the boys' exhibition, a feature that was only recently adopted, the day is one of great interest to all the pupils of the school. This year, however, several new features have been added to the girls' exercises. One entirely new number is the national Maypole dance by the freshmen girls. The girls who participated in this event wore sailor blouses with red collars and ties.

One feature that is of great interest in the list of events for the boys, is the contest for the blue and red pennants. The winner is awarded to the company adjudged the best in the drill while the red one goes to the company winning second place. As the companies to qualify for this event were decided on at the elimination drill held last week on the common there will only be three companies to compete. These are Company A, Joseph C. Markham, captain, Company C, Wallace F. Safford and Company E, Lucien Brunell, captain.

Best Appearing Company

Another event that is looked upon by the captains of all the companies as the best on the program is the contest for the best appearing company. In this event the prize, a sword, is awarded to the captain of the company and he may keep the trophy. In the other events the prizes are only held during the year and at the conclusion of the term they revert to the school. All captains are anxious to win the prize.

The other contests are for the individual medals: A gold medal is awarded to the candidate adjudged the best and the silver medal goes to the one taking the second honors. The judges are Brigadier General P. Frank Packard, Captain Charles Dawson, 5th regiment, Captain Philip McNulty, Co. M, 5th regiment.

The music for the dress parade at the grounds was furnished by the Cadet band, while the drum corps supplied the music for the regimental parade. The music for the girls' events was rendered by Sheehan's orchestra.

Shortly after 2 o'clock the first event was started.

The first event was the individual prize drill for boys. On the first trial there were 12 in the squad. As each contestant failed to drop out and the squad was finally reduced to four and the latter were put through Butt's manual by the colonel and they were watched by the three judges. The drill was very cleverly done and out of those four the two winners were selected for the gold and silver medals and their names will be given later.

The first battalion of the girls to the strains of Sheehan's orchestra marched from the right to the center of the park. The officers were attired in regimental dresses of blue and the "privates" were dressed in white. The young ladies were greatly applauded. They then gave their wand drill.

THE EXAMINATION

FOR SCHOLARSHIPS AT BOSTON COLLEGE

Rev. Redmond J. Walsh, S. J., dean of Boston college, has announced the date and conditions for the competition for the scholarships to Boston college and its preparatory high school which are given each year. The scholarships, eight in number, will be contested for by competitive examination on Saturday, June 15.

Four scholarships will be offered for the college and four for the high school, and the awards will include free tuition throughout the four years' course, beginning next September.

The examinations for both college and high school will be held simultaneously in 10 places on June 15. The contestants may appear at any of the following places at 9 a. m.: Boston college high school, James street, St. Francis de Sales school, Sumner Hill street, Charlestown; St. Patrick's school, Lawrence street, Brighton; St. Mary's school, Harvard and Essex streets, Cambridge; St. Joseph's school, Washington street, Somerville; St. Raphael's school, Oak street, Hyde Park; St. Michael's school, Sixth street, Lowell; St. Mary's school, Market street, Lynn; St. James school, Federal street, Salem; Immaculate Conception school, School street, Stoughton.

The college competition will be open to graduates of any high school in good standing and to any other young men who have passed satisfactory examinations admitting them to the college.

SOME SENSATIONAL TESTIMONY

WAS GIVEN BY BOLAND TODAY

IN JUDGE ARCHBALD CASE

WASHINGTON, May 22.—W. P. Boland of the Marion Coal Co., Scranton, Pa., author of the charges against Judge Robert W. Archbald of the court of commerce, today told his story to the house judiciary committee. Boland declared he had become convinced that the coal roads in Pennsylvania were using Judge Archbald and that "it was not the exception but the rule that Judge Archbald was willing to serve the railroads."

The witness related the history of his fight against alleged discriminations by the railroads. Boland referred to the case in which the Marion Coal Co. was defendant in 1908 in Judge Archbald's court. He said that about this time he (Boland) made complaint to the inter-state commerce commission against the discrimination by the railroads and that immediately "things began to move" in the case against him.

"The way Judge Archbald ordered me to go on with this case convinced me he wasn't on the level," said Boland. "I had heard some things about the judge from his confidential friends and I began to investigate them."

Boland detailed the efforts of Attorney George Watson to sell the Marion Coal Co. to the railroads. He declared Judge Archbald had President Truesdale and Vice President Loomis of the Lackawanna come to Scranton to see Watson.

"Watson told me," said Boland, "that Truesdale declared at this conference: 'What is this judge to do in this case? Is this in the nature of a holiday? I refuse to have anything to do with it.'"

Boland said he asked Watson why he was asking the railroad $100,000 for the property when his company was willing to sell for $100,000.

"Well we have to settle with Judge Archbald," Watson was credited with saying. "I said, 'I thought the judge was helping you through friendship.'"

Continued Boland. "Oh, the judge would not take your watch, but he might take your chain," Watson replied."

TRAVERSY FAMILY

STILL SUFFERING

As the Result of Eating Ice Cream

The members of Mr. Edmund Traversy's family who were poisoned last Saturday from eating ice cream, are still in the same condition, with the exception of Adolphe who was able to leave his bed today. The others, numbering nine, are still confined to their beds and are in a serious condition.

It was learned today that the following are also suffering from the effects of the poisoned ice cream: Joseph Dery, 3 Dana street; Joseph Dolan, Ludlum street and Catherine Donnelly, 305 West Sixth street.

BOSTON MURDER MYSTERY

HAS NOT BEEN SOLVED YET

BOSTON, May 22.—The mystery shrouding the murder of Mrs. Lillian Jewar, formerly of Montreal, who was strangled in her apartments in the South End, probably on Saturday, was still far from solution by the police at noon today. Several clues were run down yesterday without producing any tangible results, including the examination of Charles Hopping, a waiter, and his release last night from detention. Several of the police inspectors pointed out today that the circumstances surrounding the discovery of Mrs. Jewar's body yesterday resembled closely those attending the murder of Laura Clum, a tenant of a waterfront hotel last September. Both women were seen during the evening in various resorts but no clue could be discovered that would lead to the identification of their companions in the room where the bodies were subsequently discovered. Hopping told the police last night that he called at Mrs. Jewar's apartments on Sunday night but could not get in so he left a note under the door. The note was found as indicated. Two women who were examined today stated that they accompanied Mrs. Jewar to one of the subway stations late Friday night and so far as known this was the last time she was seen alive. They said that Mrs. Jewar had spent part of the evening in a Sudbury street saloon but that she entered the subway station alone. Other tenants of the apartment house where Mrs. Jewar lived knew little of her.

SALISBURY COTTAGERS

WILL LOSE HOUSES

Walter Coulson, treasurer and attorney for the Salisbury Beach associates, before the senate ways and means committee yesterday, made a statement which will be startling to the lessees at Salisbury beach.

He said: "Tax Commissioner Treffy last year insisted against our protest that all the buildings at Salisbury beach be taxed as real estate to the owners of the land. Under the decisions of the supreme court of Massachusetts, fixtures that are not removed during the original term of a lease become a part of the real estate upon the expiration of the first term, and cannot be removed by the lessee during the term of the subsequent lease."

"Under the decision, about ninety per cent. of the buildings at Salisbury beach legally belong to the Salisbury Beach associates, and if the state takes the beach by purchase or by eminent domain, it will be obliged to pay the Salisbury Beach associates, not only for the land, but for the buildings thereon."

Mr. Coulson said: "The Reservation bill is avowedly in the interests of the tenants. It is the tenants who are putting up the money to charter special trains and hire bands and entertain the members of the legislature. In order to get this bill passed, they are deluded, however. They are following unsafe counsellors, who are misleading them to their own detriment. If they win they have lost. If the bill becomes a law, and the state takes the beach, the houses which they today believe to be theirs would belong to the commonwealth, and the value of the same would be paid to the Salisbury Beach associates. This bill is none of our seeking, continued Mr. Coulson. It was framed and engineered in the interests of the tenants, and we have been opposing it."

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Holden of Oxford, Maine, are visiting Mr. Holden's sister, Mrs. Wm. Brockway of Jewett street.

BARKER AVENUE

A PORTION OF IT HAS BEEN CLOSED TEMPORARILY

A portion of Barker avenue, which runs from 25 Boynton street to 135 Ludlum street, has been closed temporarily in order to demonstrate the land as being private property. A fence has been erected at the Ludlum street entrance and a portion of a fence at the Boynton street entrance, there being an opening from Boynton street in order to allow one of the residents of the street passageway for a horse drawn vehicle.

There are but three houses on the street and although one end of the avenue has been blocked the other is partially opened.

It is alleged that the street was formerly owned by Nathaniel Peabody but was recently purchased by O. P. Davis and three others, and that the deeds have been passed.

The fence is to remain temporarily in order that the people who claim to own the property can vindicate their rights to the passageway being private property and not a public thoroughfare.

MRS. GARLAND TO MARRY WILL LOSE LARGE INCOME

She Will Become the Wife of Financial Adviser—Estate Will Go to Sons

BOSTON, May 22.—The announcement that Mrs. James A. Garland, formerly Marie Louise Tudor, who was divorced and remarried to Mr. Garland shortly before his death, six years ago, is to marry again, has been confirmed by Mrs. Garland herself. On Saturday she will become the wife of Francis Cushing Green, who for four years has been her chief adviser and secretary in managing her estate. By the terms of her husband's will, she thereby forfeits the income of a fortune said to be $100,000. The money reverts to her three oldest sons, and later goes to Harvard college as a fund to aid struggling students. The wedding will take place at Mrs. Garland's home, "Bay End Farm," at Bourne, on Buzzards Bay. James A. Garland, Jr., will be best man. Mrs. Garland resides on what is known as the old Horton estate, which consists of three large mansions. The largest, formerly a clubhouse, is occupied by Mrs. Garland and four of her children, the second by Mr. Green, and the third is devoted to the use of

Mrs. Garland's invalid son, Mrs. Garland and Mrs. Green are related, and he is always referred to in the family as "Cousin Frank."

The revelation of a second romance in Mrs. Garland's life recalls her first marriage when a young girl of 23, to James A. Garland, Harvard graduate and heir to millions. The marriage was quite the society event of the fall of 1893, and was a union of great wealth and splendid social position, as the Tudors trace their ancestry back to royalty, and are one of the oldest families in Boston.

The second sister also made a brilliant marriage, becoming the wife of Frederick Converse, and the third sister, Rosamond, became the wife of Alexander Higginson. Mrs. Higginson later got a divorce and married W. Starling Burgess, the aviator. Then Mr. Higginson married Jeanne Caldwell, an actress.

WORTH $20,000

JEWELRY WAS FOUND IN SAFE DEPOSIT VAULT

NEW YORK, May 22.—Jewelry and diamonds valued at $20,000 were found yesterday by the police in a safe deposit vault of the Harlem branch of the Colonial Trust company, which was rented by Bert Curtis, the alleged burglar of the "Beau Brummel" type, who was arrested last Sunday.

Curtis, who has refused to make a statement, accompanied the police to the trust company, where scores of men and women whose homes have been robbed within the last year had gathered to identify the hidden plunder.

"I bought that junk from another man," Curtis said as the detectives removed five packages from the strong box. "I paid $500 for the whole bunch of it."

When the police searched the flat occupied by Curtis, under the name of Lamont, a woman gave them the key to the safe deposit vault. In the apartment diamonds and jewelry worth more than $500 were found packed in trunks and suitcases.

In investigating the career of Curtis, detectives found he had visited the Metropolitan Opera House at least one night a week, and had spent most of his evenings in the expensive restaurants in Broadway and in the most exclusive hotels.

Several wealthy men and women, including J. P. Morgan, Jr., have reported losses by robbery recently, and they have been asked by the police to assist in the identification of the jewelry.

SENT TO PRISON

INSURANCE MAN FOUND GUILTY ON EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGES

PORTLAND, Me., May 22.—Arthur G. Eaton, insurance agent, was sentenced to the state prison for a term of seven years yesterday. Eaton was arrested on the charge of embezzlement of the funds of the company by whom he was employed, but sentence was imposed on three counts only, the others being placed on the special docket.

ROOSEVELT CARRIES OHIO AFTER SPIRITED CONTEST

Gov. Harmon Was the Winner in the Democratic Primaries
Yesterday

COLUMBUS, O., May 22.—A sweeping victory for Ex-President Roosevelt for republican choice for the presidency and for Gov. Harmon for the democratic choice was the result of the state-wide primary held in Ohio yesterday. One of Ohio's "favorite sons," President Taft, lost in the contest.

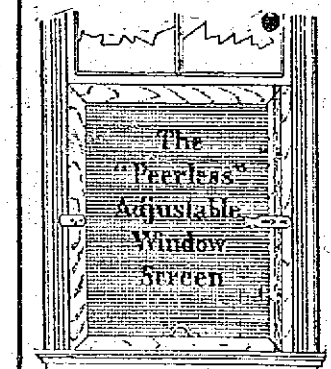

With the probabilities that there may be an increase as later returns come in, it is estimated that Roosevelt has a plurality of approximately 20,000 over President Taft in the popular contest as expressed through the selection of the delegates to the national convention. Taft so far has carried three entire districts. There is division in two. On the democratic side Harmon is far in the lead of Gov. Wilson of New Jersey. Despite the fact that their names were not printed on the ticket, William J. Bryan and Champ Clark received scattering votes.

While returns are meagre on the vote for delegates to the republican state convention which will name the six republican national delegates at large it is believed that Roosevelt forces will dominate. The democratic party provided in its call that the candidate receiving the largest presidential preference vote shall be permitted to name his own six delegates at large to the national convention. This will give Gov. Harmon an opportunity to further increase his number of delegates to the Baltimore convention.

Gov. Harmon's majority, it is believed, will exceed that of Col. Roosevelt.

On the face of returns up to 7 a. m. from about 70 of the 88 counties of the state President Taft will have but 10 of the 42 delegates to the national convention. He will have two in each of

You can protect your trees in the most effectual and economical way if you band them with TREE TANGLEFOOT, an absolutely harmless, sticky substance applied directly to tree trunks. Easily put on with a wooden paddle. See cut. One application remains effective three months or longer, fully exposed to weather (rain or shine). One pound makes about nine lineal feet of band. Especially recommended for above mentioned insects, although equally effective against any climbing pest. No mixing required. TREE TANGLEFOOT

Two Boxes of STOMACH-RITE

Cured This Woman

Dear Doctor's Daughter:
I had nervous dyspepsia for one year. I was treated by a physician, but it did me no good whatever. I was so bad at times that I became unconscious. I heard of your Stomach-Rite and took two boxes of it, and am entirely cured. Have no stomach trouble now whatever. Have now begun to take your Blood Builder to build me up. Yours,
MARY MacDONALD,
57 Washington St., Quincy, Mass.

Picture of Health

Dear Doctor's Daughter:
Since taking your Stomach-Rite my oldest son, nineteen years of age, is entirely cured of severe attacks of indigestion, and has changed from a sickly, delicate-looking young man to the picture of health. Long may you live. Yours gratefully, MRS. CHARLES E. CLARK,
613 Park Ave., Woonsocket, R. I.

For the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn, sour stomach distress after eating and constipation STOMACH-RITE is the best medicine.
A trial of one box will quickly convince the most skeptical of this fact.

THE PRESIDENT

REFUSED TO COMMENT ON OHIO RESULT

WASHINGTON, May 22.—President Taft, returning from his campaign tour in Ohio, reached Washington at 3:50
a. m. today. He plunged into a busy day at the White House offices and has planned to leave Thursday for New York to travel through the state campaigning for delegates to Chicago who will be elected at the primaries next Tuesday.

The president had no statement to make this morning concerning the result of the Ohio primaries. He has made known to his friends that he is still in the fight and believes that he will have enough delegates to secure the nomination at Chicago.

ROOSEVELT ELATED

HE VOICES HIS GRATIFICATION
AT THE RESULT

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., May 22.—Col.
Roosevelt was greatly elated today with the reports from Ohio. After going through several hundred telegrams which came in this morning from all parts of the country he dictated this statement:
"Naturally, I am very much pleased with the impulsive judgment of Ohio.
Seriously, I can only repeat what I have already said. I infinitely prefer the deliberate judgment of the people to their impulsive judgment, and in Ohio we got their deliberate judgment, and as I have also said, if I had to make a choice I would choose the impulsive judgment of the people rather than the deliberate judgment of the bodies."
"The result in Ohio has settled the contest. I believe we could have won without Ohio. Our opponents needed the substantially solid vote of Ohio in order to give them even a chance to make a contest at the Chicago convention."
"Victory in Ohio means that it will be hopeless to beat us at Chicago by unseating our delegates who represent the popular will in Washington, Indiana, Kentucky and elsewhere, nor will it be possible for them to win by seating delegations from southern states, which represent nothing whatever but fraud."
"I am very profoundly appreciative of what the people of Ohio have done."

KINNEY AND HOLLIS AT MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

The very best that is to be found in vaudeville is contained in this week's bill at the Merrimack Square Theatre. High-class musical comedy, humor of the right sort and handed in a manner that's most amusing, as well as the very best of photo-plays are contributing factors in the excellence of the entertainment. "The Sunny South" is the equal in many ways, to the first-class musical comedies which the Temple Players have already presented. The various members of the cast are all seen in numbers that are especially pleasing.
Miss Hawthorne, Jack Ailman, James
Byrnes, George Lewis, Miss Winnifred Gillrairie, Miss Helen Potter Nichols,
Miss Josephine Barry, Miss Frankie
Wood, Miss Mae Lawless and Miss Murphy are included in the cast and their combined efforts are entirely pleasing. The concluding number, "The Blue and the Gray," is a good finale to an exceedingly good act.

Kinney and Hollis in "The College Students," a comedy sketch that's as funny as anything in its line, are making a decided hit. This pair of comedians are extremely popular in Lowell and have scored heavily at all performances up to date. They have a pleasing faculty of injecting originality into their efforts that makes their offering amusing. They draw down a good salary each week for making people laugh, and they certainly earn every cent they receive, for it is an almost continuous roar from first to last.

Emile Reese, violinist, Kenyon, Allen and Kenyon, comedy jugglers, and Arthur Kelsey, baritone, are the others who assist in making the week's offering a real leader. The photo-plays for the last three days of the week will include "The Suffragette Parade in New York City," a Pathe production of unusual excellence. "When Kings Were Law," is another superior picture portraying that will be appreciated by those who appreciate only the best in this line of entertainment.

Next week The Temple Players will present "At Textile."

RECORD OF OFFICERS IS NOW BELOW PAR

Adj. Gen'l Pearson Sees Inefficiency in Militia

Several officers in various organizations of the M. V. M. have efficiency records below the required standard, according to Adjutant-General Garner W. Pearson, who yesterday was asked concerning the report that the commanding officer of one organization had been asked by a superior officer to resign because of inefficiency.

"It is nothing unusual, when the large number of officers of the entire state militia are considered, for several of them to have at one time records alleged to be below the required high efficiency mark," said General Pearson.

The adjutant-general declined to give out the names of the officers whose cases have been called to his attention.

With regard to the report concerning the one commanding officer, General Pearson was frank to say that he had no knowledge of such a case or to what organization the officer may belong. He added that it has not reached his office.

The special military board of inquiry, which sat in the case of Colonel Lon-hard of the coast artillery corps, is thrashing out a vast mass of evidence submitted during its sittings. Those in close touch say the board has reached no agreement.

It is said the present cases grew out of reports of United States army officers who were unimpressed during the war maneuvers last summer.

It is said in the instance of the commanding officer whose resignation, it is said, was asked two weeks ago, the request was based on regular army officers' reports.

THE ANNUAL CONVENTION

Of the Catholic Order of Foresters

BOSTON, May 22.—More than 300 delegates representing nearly 35,000 members of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters gathered here today for the 23rd annual convention of the order. The program provides for reports of officers following a high mass in St. Joseph's church. The most interesting report was Secretary-Treasurer Maguire's, showing the income for the year to have been $446,- 740, while the disbursements amounted to $388,233. The total percentage in deaths was 11.1 per cent. Several entertainment features following the convention business had been arranged by the local courts of the organization.

WOMAN'S AGE

IS HER OWN PROPERTY, SAYS
MAYOR BARRY

BOSTON, May 22.—The knowledge of a woman's age is her private property, a much-cherished personal and individual possession, which she can be compelled to share with no other human being, according to Mayor J.
Edward Barry of Cambridge.

Mayor Barry, who is a bachelor, last night vetoed an order of the board of aldermen requesting a compilation of the names of all city employees, except laborers, with full statistics, including age, on the ground that the women employees would object to having their ages made public.

The mayor declared that it has ever been the privilege of women, transcending any possible justice or equity, even constitutional demands, to keep their age secret.

On the motion of Alderman Nelligan the matter was laid on the table for another week.

KEITH'S LE PALACE D'ART

Much genuine entertainment is purveyed at Keith's this week by the four acts and five motion pictures which have been selected for patrons of the handsome theatre. The singing of the quartet in the southern numbers has been highly praised and specially praiseworthy is the work of Miss Josephine Iseib. The vaudeville acts are interesting, particularly good being Barrett brothers, dancers of any and all sorts of steps and who their grotesque numbers are capable of giving keen pleasure. Miles and Raymond give 20 minutes of the funniest kind of fun. The male member of the pair is a genuinely funny man. Brill and Brady, Indian club throwers are truly marvels. The five motion picture subjects are entirely new here. One of the most striking is "The Eye That Never Sleeps," a little drama taken from scenes in the life of Detective William J. Burns. Another which holds great interest is "The Spider's Web," while a third which eventually turns out all right is "His Lesson." The scenic picture, "Egypt," has a wealth of education to it. Seats, 5, 10 and 15 cents. Change of pictures Thursday. Next week we are promised some high class acts that are now playing in Keith's 5th Avenue theatre,
New York City, that are new to Lowell.

will also furnish the music for the dancing which will follow the musical

SENATOR CRANE TO RETIRE AT THE END OF HIS TERM

He Says That He Arrived at Decision to Give Up Public Life Some Months Ago

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Senator W. Murray Crane late yesterday afternoon announced that he would not be a candidate for re-election next autumn. His statement follows:

"Some months ago I definitely decided not to become a candidate for re-election as United States senator, but I intended to defer making a statement to that effect until after the republican national convention.

"There is, however, a proposition pending in the Massachusetts legislature for the nomination of United States senators substantially similar to the existing law relating to the nomination of candidates for the presidency, representatives in congress and state executive officers.

"If this proposed law is enacted a much earlier campaign for this office will be necessary and I therefore make known my position at this time in order that those who may be interested in becoming candidates may have the fullest opportunity to have their candidacies considered.

"In making public my decision not to become a candidate again I wish to assure the people of Massachusetts of my deep appreciation of the loyal support and confidence which they have always given me."

Senator Crane's term in the senate expires March 3 next.

Would Not Enter Contest

The announcement, while not a surprise to the intimate friends of Senator Crane among the Massachusetts delegation, will nevertheless be a surprise to most Massachusetts republicans.

For a year or more it has been stated that in case of a contest for his place Senator Crane would not be a candidate for re-election. Things political in Massachusetts and the nation the past year have not been going the junior senator's way. It is pretty generally understood that Mr. Crane deplores the rough and tumble style of contemporary politics.

The only political honor that Mr. Crane has ever been obliged to fight for in Massachusetts was his first nomination for lieutenant-governor. Since then every position he has held, of governor, United States senator, and republican national committeeman, has come without much effort on his part.

Has Never Made a Speech

Mr. Crane has been a power in the senate since he succeeded George Frisbie Hoar, but in the eight years that he has been in congress he has never made a speech.

Senator Lodge has acted as spokesman for the Massachusetts senators, but Mr. Crane has done most of the diplomatic work for his party and the New England interests on both sides of the chamber.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAM FOR ASST. LIBRARIAN

The Park Dept. Begins Spraying of Trees

The civil service commission has notified the city clerk that a competitive examination will be held on June 18, 1912, to fill a vacancy in the position of assistant librarian (female) in the office of the state board of agriculture and similar vacancies as they may occur. The salary is $660 a year. The examination will include handwriting, spelling, arithmetic, stenography, typewriting and the Dwyer system of categorizing. Only citizens of the United States who have been residents of Massachusetts for the past year have the right to apply.

Tax Books for 1912

It was stated at the office of the purchasing agent today that proposals for the printing and binding of 1350 copies of the tax books for 1912 will be received up to May 28.

Spraying of Trees

The spraying of trees by the park department was begun today and Commissioner Cummings says the work will probably continue to July 1. A large power sprayer will be used and the work will be done under the supervision of Sgt. Charles A. Whitte.

For the continued rainy spell the spraying would have been started earlier, but it was not deemed wise to spray the arsenals of lead only to have it wash off again.

SCHOOL SAVING

INTERESTING TALK BY MR. WHIDDEN AT VARNUM SCHOOL

Clarence W. Whidden, president of the Central Savings bank, addressed the pupils of the Varnum school this morning. The exercises were held in the school hall, the pupils of all the rooms being present. Mr. Whidden spoke on "School Savings" and his remarks were very interesting. He said that at the present time thirty-six of the local schools have accounts in the Central bank and the total deposits amount to $200,000.

JOHNNY KILBANE AND JIMMY WALSH IN 12-ROUND DRAW

At Pilgrim A. A., Boston, Last Evening—Many Lowell Sports Attended

About 500 Lowell sports helped swell the attendance at the Pilgrim A. A. in Boston last evening, when Johnnie Kilbane, the feather-weight champion of the world essayed to put away the pride of Boston, Jimmie Walsh, a graduate of the bantam class, in 12 rounds. This bout, which was worth the journey to see, together with three bang-up preliminaries made one of the best boxing bills ever offered in Boston and was a tribute to the good judgment of Johnnie Mooney as a match-maker.

With terrific flashes of lightning on the outside and the lightning-like boxing on the inside, the members were kept on the jump all the evening. Jimmie Walsh was the third man in the ring and he pleased the most fastidious, for his decisions all were right. He couldn't in honesty award the bout to Walsh despite Jimmie's great work nor could he give it to Kilbane who after putting it over no less a celebrity than Abe Attell, was kept busy throughout by a mere bantam. The boys agreed to box until the referee told them to break and then to get away clean. Walsh followed the instructions to the letter while the champ at times showed a disregard of the rule. He had one habit to which the crowd didn't take kindly and that was to hold Jimmie around the neck with one arm and clout him with upper-cuts with the other, incidentally walking him around the ring.

But the crowd was fair and when in the 10th Walsh "rubbed" Kilbane's damaged optic in a clinch the spectators showed their disapproval. It was a fast, clean and scientific bout and demonstrated the oft-repeated fact that if one wants action watch the little fellows work. Kilbane in the opening rounds was bit inclined to be a little on the "grandstand" but when Jimmie seeing that he wasn't there with the champ at the fancy boxing stuff started to go to him, then Johnnie cut out frills and got right to business. For seven rounds Kilbane showed his superiority as a boxer but for the next few, Walsh went in with both hands and in a few seconds he had the crowd on their feet with a crack in the eye that damaged the champion's optic. It did the heads of the Boston fans good to see a world's champion break ground and back away from the ex-hantam. But Kilbane excelled again in the two closing rounds and worked some strong body punches on the Boston boy. Both were strong at the finish and the decision, a draw, was eminently fitting.

The preliminaries were exceptionally good. For a curtain raiser Johnnie Munroe of Charlestown defeated John McEloven of Providence in six lively rounds. Then Tommy Murphy of Lawrence was laid away in six by Frankie Mack of Beaumont. The semi-final was the candy and introduced our old friend of the bar-bang preliminaries, Joe Nelson of Lawrence against a sturdy little bulldog who rejoices in the euphonious name of Everett Eldridge. What they didn't do to each other was not worth recording and it was anybody's contest until the last round when Everett went down and remained there while the referee tolled the knell of parlay day. In the second round of this contest a very funny situation arose. The pair were going at it with all the speed of a couple of 40 horsepower windmills, each stopping everything that came his way with his face. Eldridge slipped over a wild right that caught Nelson plumb on the point of the jaw and down goes Nelson. Eldridge was the most surprised man in the ring and thinking that Nelson had slipped down stooped over and picked him up just as the surprised referee was starting on the count.

A bang-up bill was announced for next week which includes three ten-round bouts with Sandy Ferguson as one of the features. During the evening Jimmie Gardner was introduced by Denny O'Shea as one of the best boxers in the country. Mike Twin Sullivan was introduced as the challenger of Mike Gibbons whom Jimmie Gardner would also like to meet. Martin Flaherty of this city was at the ringside as the guest of his old-time opponent, Jimmie Dunne, now manager of Johnnie Kilbane. All of the leading sporting editors of New England were present and all agreed that the arena was an ideal place for boxing encounters.

WOMAN DIED SUDDENLY NATURALIZATION COURT

Mary Johnson Passed Away in Ambulance

Mrs. Mary Johnson, aged 45 years, living at 310 Adams street, died suddenly last night while she was being removed to the hospital after being seized with a shock while in Bridge street. Deceased, who had been visiting a sick friend in Centralville, was returning home, when upon reaching the Central bridge in Bridge street, she showed signs of distress. Before she could be reached she had fallen to the sidewalk and was unconscious.

A hurried call for the ambulance was sent in and the unfortunate woman was removed to St. John's hospital, but she passed away before she reached the institution. The body was removed to her late home by Undertakers C. H. Molloy & Sons.

HOUSE DAMAGED

IT WAS STRUCK BY LIGHTNING LAST NIGHT

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Shore in Lakeview avenue was struck by a bolt of lightning last night and slight damage was done. The bolt entered by way of the chimney and in its downward course blew out the chimney thimbles and entered one of the upper bedrooms, tearing a large hole in the wall and removing a large portion of the plastering.

At the close of the session the members were pleasantly entertained with a victrola concert, given under the supervision of A. L. Biser of M. Steinert & Sons.

NATURALIZATION COURT

SITS HERE NEXT WEEK

Many Applicants Took Out Papers Today

Clerk Billingham and his assistant were again at the court house this morning in order to give out first naturalization papers. There was a large number of applicants on hand and although not quite so numerous as yesterday, a large number of papers were given out, and the two clerks are well satisfied with the few days they spent in Lowell.

Naturalization court will be held in this city at the court house in Gorham street on Monday and Tuesday next. The first day will be for the first papers and the second for the second papers, and it is expected the court will be kept quite busy on these two days, for there will be a large number of applicants of all nationalities who will appear.

NARROW ESCAPE

MRS. BARBER FELL FROM WINDOW OF HOME

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Mrs. Le-droit Langdon Barber, widow of a son of the late Amos I. Barber, "the asphalt king," narrowly escaped serious injury here today when she either jumped or fell from an upper story window of the family mansion, Belmont.

Mrs. Barber was found on the roof of a wing of her home. She has been suffering for some time from a nervous breakdown due to anxiety over a sick child. The family made no statement other than that Mrs. Barber's condition was not serious.

MRS. PANKHURST SENT TO PRISON

Suffragette Leader Was Found Guilty

LONDON, May 22.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant suffragette leader, and Mr. and Mrs. Pethick Lawrence, joint editors of Votes for Women, were all found guilty at the Old Bailey sessions today and each sentenced to nine months imprisonment on the charge of conspiracy and inciting their followers to malicious damage to property.

We, the undersigned, take this means of expressing our heartfelt thanks to all those who so kindly assisted us in the hour of our bereavement in the death of our beloved son, Gerald. We are also grateful to those who sent floral offerings. We will always remember their kindness.

LADIES

We are Giving Away Five Beautiful $15.00 French Plumes to Five Ladies FREE

We opened the Daily Wholesale Millinery Store here at 158 Merrimack St. a month ago, selling direct to consumers and retailers alike. Imitators of our original methods are abroad in the land and in order to have the ladies of Lowell acquaint themselves with certain facts we offer five $15 prizes as a reward.

Any lady may enter this simple contest, which we inaugurate for the purpose of having the ladies of this vicinity inform themselves on certain facts, which should be known.

Answers should be mailed to us or left in sealed envelope with the cashier in our salesroom at 158 Merrimack street, up one flight.

No. 1—Would you consider a man who has retail stores a "wholesaler" or one who has always been a jobber not a wholesaler?

No. 2—Do you consider Washington street or Chaucery street, Boston, a typical Wholesale Street?

No. 3—Why is The Broadway Wholesale Millinery Co. able to sell to the LADIES DIRECT, Milliners at a saving?

40,000 MINE WORKERS HAVE RESUMED WORK

New Wage Agreement Has Been Accepted and All Collieries Will be Busy Soon

PHILADELPHIA, May 22.—After being idle for seven weeks the 40,000 mineworkers throughout the coal fields of Pennsylvania resumed work today under the new agreement. Some collieries are not ready to be placed in operation but it is expected that in a week or two mining will have reached its normal condition. While misunderstandings are looked for under the new agreement no serious hitches are feared.

In the Hazleton region men engaged on stripping work, where coal lying near the surface is taken out in the same manner as stone, is quarried, struck today for a 10 per cent. increase in wages, the same as has been granted to the miners.

Banquet of Richardson Light Infantry Officers Elected at Business Meeting

The annual reunion and banquet of the surviving members of the Richardson Light Infantry was held last night at the New American hotel. The attendance was very small, for of the 27 surviving members only eleven were present, the others being unable to attend. However, the gathering was a most pleasant one and deeply touched the veterans who all expressed words of satisfaction for being in the company of their former comrades once more. The assembly paid a tribute to the memory of the late Hon. George F. Richardson who was organizer of the company of 107 men who took such active part in the Civil war. The old soldiers gathered at the hotel at 6 o'clock and after a half hour of sociability during which time the "boys" shook each other's hand, a business meeting was held in the upper reception room of the hotel. Resolutions on the death of the members who passed away last year were adopted and the election of officers was held with the following result: Francis T. Wilson, Lowell, president; Charles H. Filisetti, Boston, vice president; Chas. R. Brigham, Lowell, secretary treasurer.

At the close of the meeting, the members assembled around a very inviting festive board in the private dining room of the hotel and there discussed a very fine menu. The newly elected president, Mr. Francis T. Wilson acted as toastmaster and at the conclusion of the meal he delivered a short address of welcome. He thanked the members of the organization for the honor they had conferred on him, and he concluded by calling upon Major C. A. Stott for a short speech.

Major Stott
The major expressed his joy at being at another meeting of the old boys, and related a few incidents of war time. In brief his speech was as follows:

"I was mustered into the Seventh Battery, which grew out of this company, on May 21, 1861. I can remember clearly the formation of this company, the first three-year company organized in New England and one of the first to go to the front.

"I have attended most of your annual banquets and I can't tell you how much I have enjoyed them. I don't know that I can attend many more of them. I suppose that I ought to be in my grave by this time, but instead I am in the best of health and spirits and I feel that I can come to many more of them.

There is one fact which I know you all miss greatly tonight, the face of our former president, the man who organized this company, the Hon. George F. Richardson, who died at the beginning of this year. There was never a more loyal man than he, every drop of his blood was loyal, and while he couldn't go to the front on account of a physical inability—his eyesight wouldn't permit of his enlistment—he fought in that great struggle through the men he organized, equipped and sent forth into that conflict, and it was a splendid body of young men which he sent forth to represent him, and they did fulfill his every hope and ambition.

"I was his friend for years and we were always as loyal to each other and to our friendship as either of us could have desired, and I miss him more than I can tell you. Every one respected him, and it was said by many lawyers who knew him well, that he rarely lost a case in the higher courts of our commonwealth, because of his great legal knowledge and his acuteness of intellect. He was a wonderful man, and Lowell has every reason to be proud of him and to be proud of that splendid body of young men which he organized and sent forth.

Dr. Ruddick
Dr. W. H. Ruddick was next called upon and he too paid a tribute to the late Hon. George F. Richardson. He said in part:

"I like to honor, with you, the father of this company, George F. Richardson, and I have great pride and pleasure in knowing that through the company he formed and equipped, the Seventh Massachusetts battery, of which I was a member, was formed. I enlisted on May 2, 1862, and I was discharged in June, 1865. And so, although I am not really a member of your company, I feel in many ways that I have a very deep and true comradeship with you.

"I miss Mr. Richardson greatly. Whenever he met me here at these annual dinners he always greeted me as one of the boys. I also used to meet him at the Harvard commencements, both of us were graduates of Harvard, and although it was many years after the war, he knew me as well and greeted me as kindly as in '61. Major Stott's eulogy of him was well deserved. I cannot speak of him as you can who have known him as a fellow citizen, but I will always remember him as typical of the best in American citizenship.

"I also want to pay a little tribute to Morton N. Peabody, another man whose face we miss greatly tonight, a man whom we all greatly respected and liked.

The next called upon was Newman W. Storer who expressed his appreciation of the sterling character of the late Mr. Richardson. He also spoke to the young men, sons of veterans and told them to be on the lookout. There is a time coming when you will have to face a crisis, a war which will not be a sectional war," said the speaker, "but a war in your streets, for soon two parties will be formed, one which will stand for law and order, a constitutional party, while the other for radicalism and anarchy, the principles of the I. W. W."

The others who spoke were James W. Beane, James Schofield and Chas. Filisetti, who addressed the gathering about on the same principles as the others adding a touch of wit by relating olden days incidents.

The members of the company who were present at the banquet were as follows: William E. Farrar, first lieutenant; W. Henry Worcester, sergeant; both of this city; Newman W. Storer, corporal, and Charles Filisetti, color bearer, both of Boston; James W. Beane of West Somerville; Henry L. Gardner of Springfield; James Schofield of North Grafton; George N. Thibault of Lawrence and Francis T. Wilson, Franklin French and Charles French of Lowell.

The sons of the old members of the company who were present were as follows: Edward W. Brigham, C. R. Brigham and Leonard Worcester, all of this city; F. H. Peabody of Boston and A. R. Wilson of Needham.

At the close of the banquet it was voted that the flowers on the banquet table be laid by the secretary on the graves of Comrades Richardson, Brigham and Peabody.

WOMEN INJURED
AUTOMOBILE IN COLLISION WITH ELECTRIC CAR
BOSTON, May 22.—Mrs. James Dean, wife of the former Harvard football star, of 109 Walnut street, Brookline, Mrs. Mary Lincoln, her mother, and their chauffeur, John Riley, were severely cut by glass about 11 o'clock last night, when their auto and an electric car collided just below the Brookline Village transfer station.

John Cole, the motorman, also received cuts from flying glass.

Just before reaching the transfer station, opposite 109 Washington street, Brookline, the chauffeur turned his car to the right and had partly crossed the inward bound Boston Elevated car tracks when the machine smashed into a Brookline car bound for Roxbury Crossing.

The front of the auto and the front vestibule of the car were much damaged, glass flying in all directions.

The chauffeur was partly thrown from his machine, one of the women fainted, and both women, the chauffeur and John Cole, the motorman, were all more or less severely cut by the shattered glass.

AUTOMOBILE TIRES

Now, then, don't get excited or misled on prices of AUTOMOBILE TIRES. You were shown by an advertisement yesterday "regular prices" of Diamond and Goodrich, as well as some other AUTOMOBILE TIRES. In the advertisement referred to, "regular prices" are quoted which are $3.15 to $3.95 more than Consumers' Prices listed by the DIAMOND, GOODRICH and other tire manufacturers, and which lists are in force today. Come in and see me; I can give you some more food for thought on a combination seeking to compel the automobile owner to pay excessive prices for an article which to the automobile user is like flour in his household. I have never noticed any sprouts on my shoulders that resembled wings. You never noticed me putting out attractive bait by which I might give you the hook.

Don't Stop, Look or Listen when you come to my place of business. Walk right in and sit right down and ask for what you want.

I can buy AUTOMOBILE TIRES that are just as fresh stock and which have just as good reputation as any tires built in the U. S. A. just as low as any individual, company or corporation in Lowell, Massachusetts, and I'll sell them to you just as low as I can and make a reasonable profit, but if reckless competition should go below a reasonable profit—"Good night."

WORKMEN ESCAPED INJURY WHEN BIG DERRICK DROPPED ACCIDENT AT MARKET ST. BRIDGE

A dozen or more men employed by the city on the rebuilding of the bridge in Market street at the corner of Dutton street narrowly escaped serious injury and probably death, when a long derrick fell with a crash this afternoon. A score or more of other people who were watching the work came very near being electrocuted when the guy rope, which came in contact with the trolley wire, fell to the ground. Fortunately there was no one injured, but the mast of the derrick was broken in two.

The cause of the accident, as explained by Commissioner Brown and Engineer George A. Nelson was a defective shackle bolt which snapped while the derrick was lifting a gas main weighing about 2500 pounds.

The derrick was situated on the opposite side of the canal from the Dutton street side and was being held up by four guy ropes one extending to Market street near the corner of Worthen, two others to Dutton street and the fourth in Market street opposite Putnam's produce store. It was this last one which gave up when a defective shackle bolt snapped. The boom of the derrick was taking the northern side of Market street and was lifting a part of the gas main. Engineer Nelson who was on the job saw the derrick declining towards the ground and he shouted to the men to run for their lives when down came the heavy piece of timber striking on the other side of the canal. The end of the mast which was 65 feet long struck the side of the canal wall and snapped in two. The guy rope gave loose and struck the trolley wire 30 feet

THE RIVER ROAD BILL PASSED BY SENATE

It is Now in the Governor's Hands

The Lowell-Lawrence river road bill was carried by the lower branch of the legislature yesterday and this morning the members of the senate passed it to be carried by a unanimous vote. EVIDENCE FOR DEFENSE In the Case of Potter vs. Erick Presented

The case of Potter vs. Erick et als, an action of contract which was started at superior court yesterday morning was resumed this morning, when the evidence for the defense was presented.

Another case was started yesterday, that of Victor H. J. Belle Isle, who seeks to recover from Rosaline Hebert, wife of the late Pierre J. Hebert, the contract price for a monument on the grave of her late husband in St. Joseph's cemetery. The defendant claims that Mr. Belle Isle did not live up to the terms of his contract. She alleges that he showed her a photograph of a monument, but which was really only a photograph of a sketch. The jury went to the cemetery to take a view of the monument.

NEW YORK, May 22—A two and a half point gain in Can. Pac. and a decline of as much in U. S. Rubber indicated the irregular tendency of the stock market at the opening. Most of the active issues were fractionally lower with light dealings.

Prices rose sharply soon after the opening with complete recovery in the coalers, smelting and minor specialties. From this they promptly receded to the opening level and in some instances went lower.

Political considerations were the governing factors in the early operations on the stock exchange today. An irregular opening gave way to a brisk rise in various standard shares and minor specialties. These gains for the most part were soon effaced on offerings of stock, some of which were doubtless in the nature of short selling. Prices yielded more under increased pressure and by midday the average level was decidedly under yesterday's close. In point of fact trading was almost wholly professional, with an excess of bearish sentiment.

The market closed heavy. The final hour was productive of further recovery, especially in U. P. and Lehigh Valley. Other losses were reduced to fractions except in Reading, which remained under pressure.

Standard shares were down one to two points at noon after which some recovery set in with another advance in the tobacco shares which advanced 2 to 4 points.

Further recoveries from low prices of the morning were recorded in the late afternoon. The movement was dull and hesitant, however, for greater strength in the tobacco shares and less important issues.

Boston Market

BOSTON, May 22—Local copper opened slightly higher today although trading was narrow and in small lots. At noon the market was more active and Calumet & Hecla advanced 5 points.

THE SITUATION IN CUBA IS GROWING MORE SERIOUS

5000 Negroes Said to Have Taken Up Arms in Province of Oriente Alone

SANTIAGO, Cuba, May 22—The situation in Cuba is rapidly growing more serious. It is now estimated that over 5000 negroes have taken up arms in the province of Oriente alone.

Two American citizens, Floyd Schick and Joseph Bryan, have complained to Ross F. Holladay, United States consul at Santiago, of being assaulted and robbed while they were on their way to Siboney by a band of armed negroes.

TO AID GOVERNMENT TROOPS

HAVANA, May 22—Two companies of infantry and two batteries of artillery entrained here this morning from the province of Oriente. They will assist the government troops at Siboney.

TAT'S PLURALITY 3623 IN THIS STATE

Returns Canvassed by Executive Council

BOSTON, May 22—President Taft's plurality over Col. Roosevelt in the recent state presidential preference primaries was 3,623, according to the official announcement made at the state house today. The returns from each city and town in the state have been canvassed by the executive council and the vote for presidential candidates follows:

Republican—Taft $5,724; Roosevelt $3,098; La Follette 2,655; scattered 89. Democratic—Clark 11,575; Wilson 15,002; scattered 617.

The returns show that on the preferential vote each of the leading republican candidates carried seven congressional districts. Of the fourteen districts in the state President Taft had pluralities in the first, second, third, sixth, eleventh, twelfth and thirteenth, while Colonel Roosevelt was victorious in the fourth, fifth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth. The democratic side, carried all of the districts with the single exception of the first, where Gov. Woodrow Wilson had a plurality of less than 100 votes.

The voters also express their preferences for republican vice presidential candidates and in this contest La Follette led seven others, including Sherman, Crane, Davis and Hughes. Gov. Ross received 2571 votes as the democratic candidate for vice president to 2531 for Fitzgerald.

THREE VARSITY CREWS Will Meet on the Charles River Tomorrow

CAMBRIDGE, May 22—The placid waters of the Charles river basin held three university crews today—Cornell, Princeton and Harvard—who will meet tomorrow afternoon in a 1 1/2 mile triangular contest followed half an hour later by rowing duels between the Cornell and Harvard freshmen.

Princeton arrived this forenoon, the crew going to a Back Bay hotel, while some of the attendants unloaded the shell and took it to the Varsity Boat Club for rigging. The Princeton crew is much the same as that which was defeated by three lengths by Cornell on Lake Carnegie last spring, when Yale proved a poor third, while the Cornell aggregation differs but little from last year when the crew not only won at Princeton but captured the race from Harvard on Lake Cayuga by 2 1/2 lengths.

The varsity race will be rowed at 4 p. m. tomorrow starting from the Cottage farm bridge and finishing almost dusk against the sea wall opposite the Union Boat Club. The freshman race will start immediately after the varsity has finished. The Cornell varsity and freshmen crews came out this forenoon to the Varsity Boat Club, where their shells are quartered with that of Princeton and with Assistant Coach Hoyle in the Harvard launch, the two crews went of a paddle down stream.

Another Harvard boat, which was placed at the disposal of the Princeton crew coach for the afternoon practice.

From reports of the makeup of the three crews it is evident that Harvard will have the heaviest eight on the water tomorrow, averaging 2 1/2 pounds heavier than Cornell and 1 1/2 more than Princeton.

A ten pound boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Smith of Fifth street May 20.

RICHESON FUNERAL WAS HELD TODAY

Only Few Persons Attended the Service

BOSTON, May 22—The funeral of Clarence V. Richeson, who suffered death at the state prison yesterday morning for the murder of Avis Linnell, took place this morning in the vestry of the Warren Avenue Baptist church. Rev. Herbert Johnson, who was one of Richeson's spiritual advisers up to the moment of the electrocution and who is pastor of the church, conducted the services.

Less than a score of people were in attendance.

Before beginning the service Mr. Johnson refused to state what disposition would be made of the body.

AMBASSADOR DEAD HE WAS DEAN OF DIPLOMATIC CORPS IN BERLIN

MONTE CARLO, May 22—Count Nikolai Dmitriyevich Von Der Osten-Sacken, Russian ambassador to Germany and dean of the diplomatic corps in Berlin, died here today in his 82nd year.

Count Von Der Osten-Sacken entered diplomatic life in 1853. Shortly after he proceeded to Spasbolto where he remained throughout the Crimean war, after which he was created a count in his own right for valor displayed during the siege of Sebastopol. Later he served at various European legations. In 1895 he was appointed Russian ambassador to the German empire and despite a severe paralytic stroke in 1899 retained that post until his death. He was greatly esteemed by his colleagues in the diplomatic corps.

TO WELCOME VISITORS TO CONGRESS OF NAVIGATION

PHILADELPHIA, May 22—Scores of delegates from different parts of the world are here for the formal opening of the 12th International congress of navigation tomorrow when President Taft will welcome the visitors on behalf of the American people. The first of the many sessions scheduled for the week of the convention was a meeting in the forenoon of today of the permanent International association of navigation congresses, under the auspices of which the congress will hold its sessions. The meeting was for the purpose of appointing committees and organizing the congress. Congressman J. Hampton Moore of this city presided. Much of the day was taken up with a tour of the city. Delegates included many eminent engineers who are experts in the construction of docks, wharves, canals and other artificial waterways. The discussions of the congress will be largely technical.

THE LOWELL'S DEFEATED

Yount Was Knocked Out of the Box

NEW BEDFORD, May 22.—The New Bedford team yesterday afternoon defeated the Lowell champs by the score of 4 to 2. The game was won in the first inning when the Whalers got to Yount, who started to pitch for the visitors and with four hits and a wild pitch with only one man out New Bedford got the four runs that proved to be enough to win the game. Yount was then derailed from the box and Zeller sent in. The letter was in great form and in the remainder of the game only two hits were made off his delivery and not a man scored.

Griffin worked for the home team and he held Lowell's hit well scattered until the seventh, when Jimmy Magee got a beautiful two-bagger to centre and De Groff sent the ball over the right field fence for a home run. There two runs represented all the scoring of the Lowell team and though the latter hit the ball, hard the New Bedford fielders were in the way and made some great plays, several times robbing the visitors from apparent sure hits.

Maranville and Sweatt pulled off some very classy stunts in the field, while the fielding of Magee was of a high order. In the eighth inning he made a running one hand catch that was a beauty and he was given a great hand. Cooney was back in the game, but his finger is still in a very painful condition.

The four runs for New Bedford off Yount were received as follows: Maranville got to first on a fast grounder to Miller. Wilson advanced him on a sacrifice. Maranville started for a third on a passed ball and Monahan threw badly to Doules and the speedy shortstop scored the first run. Connaughton hit a grounder to Miller who was playing off first and as there was no one on the bag the runner was safe. On Sweatt's single to right Connaughton went to third. Ness popped off a short fly to left for a hit and Connaughton tallied for the second. Sweatt went to third on a wild pitch and Yount went in and Ness to the middle station. O'Connell hit to Cooney, who fumbled the ball and Sweatt scored. Spires hit to Yount, who threw to third to get Ness and the runner trotted home with the fourth run. Yount was then sent to the bench and Zeller went in and stopped the slaughter. The score:

CHELMSFORD

The watering troughs in Chelmsford Centre have been closed by the authorities, owing to the reports that two horses are affected with glanders. The handles have been removed from the pumps and there is no opportunity for public watering. The troughs will remain closed until the epidemic has passed.

Miss Adelaide Teaford of Boston has been a recent guest of her cousin, Mrs. H. A. Vickery, on the East Chelmsford road.

C. George Armstrong of the Chelmsford Spring Co. is in New York on a short business trip.

The selection will meet in their room in the town hall on Thursday at 10 a. m. for the purpose of completing the organization of the board.

The House Fly Strike
Will soon invade your home, poisoning every article of food that they light on, and sometimes bringing sickness in your family. All this can be avoided by having J. B. MRS. A. L. JOHNSON

FORMER LOWELL WOMAN ELECT.
ED TO OFFICE

The first election in Sacramento, under the new commission form of government, was held last week and Mrs. A. L. Johnson, who formerly resided in Lowell and is a niece of Geo. L. Hunt and Mrs. J. M. Pearson of this city was elected commissioner of education. Her son received a telegram from his mother, stating that she came in fifth. The telegram also stated that the vote of the women was very large.

RECEIVED MANY GIFTS

Mrs. Mary E. Carlton, who observed her 10th birthday anniversary yesterday, was informally surprised by a number of her friends from the First Congregational church and members of the Centerville lodge of Rebekahs. The surprise took place at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George P. Taggart, 105 School street, where Mrs. Carlton received many beautiful gifts as well as congratulations and best wishes. The evening was spent in music and refreshments were served by the hostess.

STREET RAILWAY NINE

The baseball team of the local division of the Bay State Street Railway Co. will make its first appearance of the season at Spaulding park on Thursday afternoon, when the Lowell boys will have for opponents, the Brookton team. The local battery will be Prineau and Riler, and Frank Towhey is manager.

MUSKETAIRS, Fri. No. Billerica.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

Division 2, A. O. H., met in regular session in Hibernian hall Monday night. Vice President Philip Harley occupied the chair and considerable business of a routine nature was disposed of. The principal business was the election of a recording secretary to fill the unexpired term of T. Joseph O'Keefe, who resigned owing to other duties. Much friendly rivalry was shown between the two contestants for the office. J. Joseph McOsker and Dennis F. Reardon, the latter landing the position by a close margin. The retiring secretary was tendered a rising vote of thanks for the valuable services rendered in the division in the past. At the close of the business meeting, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

Knights of Malta

The regular meeting of Lowell Commandery, Knights of Malta, was held last night in Odd Fellows hall. Generalissimo Elmer D. Robinson presiding. There was a large attendance and considerable business was transacted. The committee on social night reported that preparations had been made to hold an invitation party and dance in Highland hall, Wednesday evening, June 12. Tickets and invitations will be sent to members as soon as possible. The black degree was conferred on two candidates, with the following officers doing the work: Commander, Elmer D. Robinson; generalissimo, Edwin S. Eastman, P. C.; prelate, Herbert E. Elliott; captain general, Albert G. Cheney, P. C.; sword warden, George P. B. Boaring; junior warden, George Snow; guards, Arthur Delong and Harry Merrill; standard bearer, Harold Delong; sword bearer, Ezra Thurber; warder, W. J. Carpenter, P. C.; sentinel, David Russell.

Odd Fellows

The regular meeting of Loyal Wamsit lodge, I. O. O. F. M. U., was held Monday night. After routine business had been transacted the bowling league committee took charge and a fine entertainment program was carried out. Speeches were also made. John H. Gregg presented the cup in behalf of the bowling league to Commissioner George H. Brown who in turn presented the cup to the lodge. The cup is now the property of Wamsit lodge inasmuch as the team won in three times in as many seasons. The committee in charge was P. G. John H. Eacrett, chairman; P. G. W. Bowles, secretary; John H. Gregg, president of the bowling league; P. G. Fred Battye; G. M. George C. Adams; P. G. John W. Andrews and Brother F. E. Bowles.

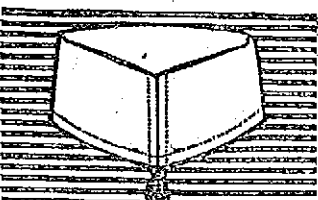

Knights of Pythias

The regular meeting of S. H. Hines lodge, 56, K. P., was held last night and was largely attended, the event of the evening being the working of the rank of esquire by the staff of Hines lodge, the work being done on the 10 pages in a very fine manner. The rank of knight will be worked on the same, Friday, May 24th, by Wamsit lodge, 25. The work will be done in long form.

will enter is due to the claim that the catcher of the Lynn team in yesterday's game is a ringer. The latter is a whirlwind and the Lowell cops intimate that he never wore an officer's uniform. The Lynn team had the game all its own way and won easily, 15 to 7.

The Lowell men played a rather loose game in the field and were weak with the stick. McCarthy was on the mound for Lowell and he did a fair job. The support he received at times was very poor but he pulled out of several bad holes. Kenney, on the receiving end for the Lowell team, played a good game and Lieut. Martin Maher in the right garden was there strong with his eagle eye and he got everything that came his way. Some he had to chase, but he got everything that he went after. The lieutenant was also very strong with the wallop and got in several good cracks at the pill.

The Lowell lineup was as follows: Kenney c, McCarthy p, Connors 1b, Drowett 2b, Kelley 3b, Lynch ss, Winn lf, Clark cf, Malter rf.

The score by innings:
Lynn 3 2 4 6 0 —15 17 9
Lowell 0 1 1 0 5 0 —7 6 5

BILLERICA

The board of selectmen of the town of Billerica met Monday night at the town hall in the centre and transacted considerable business and granted several permits. A permit for Pinhurst park was given to J. Joseph McHugh and house licenses were granted to Charles H. Kemp, Arthur S. Cook and John H. Baker.

The contract for completing the wiring of the town hall for electric wiring was awarded to L. A. Derby & Co. of Lowell, this company putting in a bid of $581.42 for the job. Oliver P. Greenwood, a local contractor, figured $281.50 for the work. The job will include wiring the banquet hall and main corridor, smoking room, cell room and landing on the first floor of the building, and the upper landing, check room, ladies' cloak room, gallery, three dressing rooms and a dozen lights on the presentiment arch over the stage to replace the small chandelier which is used at present.

Supt. A. P. Webber of the Billerica schools will speak before the mothers of Billerica and the kindergarten Thursday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock.

GREAT RECORD

The record compiled by Bobby Wallace of the St. Louis Americans as a shortstop will probably stand forever. The record books do not show where there is an infielder who has performed at that position for thirteen years and has such a remarkable average.

In the thirteen years Wallace has held for a percentage of .940—indeed phenomenal. One year he topped the field. That was in 1902, when he broke into the American league. However, he always has been near the top. His total number of assists and putouts shows that he covers acres of ground in his territory.

Wallace's complete record as a major league shortstop follows:

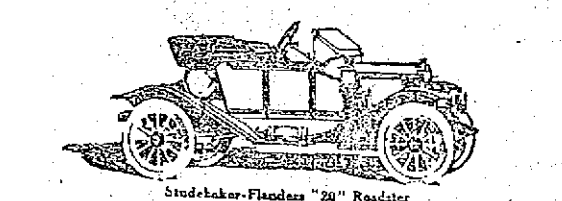

Rank	Year	G	FO	A	E	P.C.
1911	123	250	417	42	.913
1910	89	258	244	32	.946

Studebaker Builds Better Than You Would for Yourself

Your Studebaker car is built with more attention to perfect results than you could possibly require if you oversaw the whole process. Little details, you would think unimportant, receive the most thorough care, because Studebaker never built a slipshod product, and never will.

Degrees of hardness of steel and the fitness of each—hidden parts which only long service proves—the very core of every piece of metal in your car, these things we know, and in our own factories we carefully make them right.

You would be careful if you could build your own car. We are far more careful because we care as much and know more about it.

THE NEW SALISBURY BEACH SCHEME

It is now understood that the men behind the Salisbury Beach Reservation scheme have put in a new draft of the bill saddling the deficit of the expense upon the cities and towns of the Merrimack Valley without in any way consulting them. It is true that the city councils of most of these cities endorsed the bill providing that the beach be made a state reservation; but they did not at that time know of the scheme to saddle the expense or the deficit, if any, upon the cities and towns of the Merrimack Valley. This was evidently an afterthought, but it is so irregular that we do not believe the legislature would be justified in passing it. It is somewhat like the bill for the Merrimack Valley Navigation Board which would saddle these towns and cities for a large amount, in fact an indefinite amount, without any sign of compensation within the present generation. It is time somebody offered a reasonable excuse for such a proposition and until good and sufficient reasons be offered the Lowell representatives should oppose this new bill.

A member of the syndicate owning the beach in a letter to the Board of Trade, dated May 11, states that a certain combination had planned this change in the bill and that no limit is set to the amount that can be expended on the beach. He also claims that there are but 210 leases now in force on the beach which is much smaller than the number supposed. Either there must have been a great number of recent sales or some of the leases cover a large number of cottages. The whole matter is one that concerns the cities and towns in the Merrimack Valley in view of this new phase of the agitation.

FEARS OF THE MAN ON HORSEBACK

Inasmuch as Col. Roosevelt has threatened to bolt in case he does not get the republican nomination at Chicago, some people fear that a troublesome situation might arise should no candidate receive a majority in the electoral college. The election would then devolve upon the house of representatives voting for the three candidates who received the highest number of votes in the national election. In this case each state would have but one vote, and if the house did not give any candidate a majority before March 4 following, then the vice president would act as president as in case of the death or disability of the president.

Some republicans dread some such situation as that set forth; but for our part we wish to calm their fears as the election of a democratic president will make any such complication impossible. The day for the man on horseback or the methods of a Porfirio Diaz has not yet arrived in the United States. Let the republican party be smashed to smithereens as it likely will be, and yet the country will still be safe for God reigns and the democratic party still lives.

WANT LOWELL MILL OPERATIVES

Letters are being written to the French people of this city purporting to come from the French Canadian Chamber of Commerce in Lawrence, urging Lowell operatives of that class to go to Lawrence. A scale of prices in the cotton and woolen mills is given, but it is no higher than that paid in Lowell. It is claimed also that the time schedule is 54 hours in Lawrence and 55 here which is incorrect. The wages paid in Lowell will equal or exceed the rate paid in Lawrence. These letters evidently come indirectly from the mill men of Lawrence who want to get rid of some of their undesirable operatives. In all probability these same methods were used to induce the undesirable immigrants to quit their homes in Europe and come to Lawrence. That game was played by somebody from Lawrence before the Wood mill was opened. The Lowell operatives have nothing to gain, but much to lose by leaving this city for Lawrence. We do not believe that any sensible French Canadian operative would want to make the change.

SENATOR CRANE TO RETIRE

The announcement that Senator Crane will not seek a reelection is somewhat startling. It may mean that he foresees Roosevelt's success in securing the nomination or that he realizes the utter rout and demoralization of the republican party, not only in this state but all over the country. Crane has a great deal of solid sense and political sagacity. The office of senator has been to him but a source of trouble and abuse. There is no reason why he should take a life and death grip on it as did Senator Lodge. He is not the man to enter a guerrilla campaign for any such empty prize. He is one of the clearest and ablest men in the republican party. Ordinarily a man of his type should be a democrat; and stranger things have come to pass than that the November election will find him working patriotically to save the nation from a very grave danger by helping to elect the presidential nominee of the democratic party.

THE LESSON OF RICHESON

One of the most important lessons to be learned from the fate of Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson is, that seminaries and religious bodies which ordain ministers should adopt some safe method by which they can distinguish between the man who is really good and sincere and the one who is in reality a wolf in sheep's clothing. It is true that many a good young man has turned out badly; but that should induce seminaries and church councils to exercise the greatest care in giving any man a passport to preach the gospel. Had proper care been exercised by the seminary that admitted Richeson he never would have had an opportunity to fill a church pulpit. Neither his character, his antecedents or his family were investigated to determine whether he was a proper person to be made the spiritual guide and leader of any church.

The latest move of the good roads propaganda is to charge the federal government rent for the use of the roads in its rural free delivery business. If this be persisted in Uncle Sam can allow them to carry their own mail from town and thus save their roads.

The financial problem still remains unsolved and the day of reckoning approaches.

CHARGES MADE AGAINST CITY TREASURER STILES

Alderman Barrett Wants
the City Official Removed

CITY TREASURER STILES

The charges preferred against Andrew G. Stiles, city treasurer and collector of taxes, by Commissioner Andrew E. Barrett at the meeting of the municipal council yesterday afternoon were as follows:

Lowell, Mass., May 21, 1912.
To the Municipal Council, Lowell, Mass.:

Pursuant to the revised laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and all acts in amendment thereof, I hereby prefer the following charges against Andrew G. Stiles, the duly elected city treasurer of the city of Lowell, to wit:

That he has not conformed to the obligations of his office, nor has he in any way lived up to the oath of said office as city treasurer of the city of Lowell, in that he has in no wise conserved the revenues and moneys of the general treasury fund pursuant to law; nor has he acted with that diligence and capacity in marshaling the assets of the city of Lowell; that he has not in any manner accounted for the so-called Huntington hall fund, nor the NeSmith Trust fund, nor the Tyler fund, all of which according to the expert accountant, Mr. Rex, have disappeared. Wherefore, it seems for the best interests of the city of Lowell, and for the proper conservation of the city's funds that said Andrew G. Stiles, should be removed from the office of the city treasurer of the city of Lowell. As a member of the municipal council, I therefore embody in this writing the following specific charges:

First: Andrew G. Stiles has not properly conserved the funds of the city of Lowell.

Second: That he has so conducted the office of city treasurer as to confuse and embarrass the municipal council.

Third: That certain collections which ought to have been made in favor of the city, by his neglect and indifference have become outlawed and of no benefit to the city.

Fourth: For some reason unknown to the municipal council he has negligently permitted certain indebtedness due the city to remain uncollected for a long period of time without any effort on his part to collect it.

After the reading of the charges Mr. Barrett said:

"The city treasurer has improperly, illegally and unlawfully made payments of moneys which were entrusted to him by the citizens of Lowell. Between the years 1900 and 1911, the assessments raised to provide for overlays and abatements the sum of $222,000. However, of that amount but $55,000 was allowed for abatements, this leaving in the treasury of the city the sum of about $167,000. The assessors did not take these overlays. And if they did not the money should be in the office of the city treasurer. What warrant had he to allow such money to go towards anything else?"

"The Huntington hall money, so-called, has been a bone of contention. The treasurer said the money was intact. Expert Rex came here and proved that no such sum is in the possession of the treasurer. Where has it gone, I ask? What answer has the treasurer made to the charge that he has not duly accounted for the $161,000 which should have gone for abatements and overlays? What information has he given relative to the Huntington hall fund? The city now finds itself in such a position that it is forced to go to the legislature and ask for relief. That means one of two things: That the laborers of the city, next fall, will either be laid off or be forced to work without compensation, or that the taxpayers will have to stand an undue assessment. The burdens of such conditions fall, unfortunately, not on those who are responsible for them, but on the great majority who are innocent."

"It has been the policy of the treasurer's office to mislead and bluff the people of this city relative to the true financial condition. We hired an expert accountant to get the facts about the city, and he got them; and his facts, as published, ill assort with what the treasurer has in the past told us. For years he has been paying interest charges out of all proportion to what should have been paid."

"It is the duty of the treasury to be absolutely in the employ of the citizens, and to protect them against undue influences and interests, and to prevent them from being the prey of any private interest. No attempt has been made in the past 10 years to tell the people how the city's finances really stood; rather an attempt has been made to cover up, to blindfold the people, to keep the truth from getting to them."

"Our duty as commissioners is very plain. Are the members satisfied with the condition for the past seven or eight years in the treasurer's office? If they are not, then their plain duty lies before them. No member who is not satisfied can vote to continue the present condition. No member can vote to accept Rex's report and then vote against the removal of this man from office."

"If the attorneys employed by the county made an examination into the financial condition of the city there might be more serious trouble than any which has confronted us up to date."

"Sometimes duty is very unpleasant. One duty stands before you. You ought to clean up this state, to have the citizens feel that the financial interests of the city are in the proper hands. It is a question whether the people actually rule, or whether an adjunct to the city rules the city. It is a question whether citizens' votes rule, or whether a corporation the name of which no member of this council dares to mention, rules.

"I move that we proceed to the election of a city treasurer."

Mayor O'Donnell: "I think the suggestion which has been made that a hearing should be given him is proper. Any man is entitled to a fair opportunity to make answer."

Lawyer Donahue: "The chairman of the committee of accounts of last year voted away $32,000."

Mr. Barrett said that before any bill came before the committee on accounts last year it was passed upon by a sworn official of this city, the city auditor. It was impossible for the committee on accounts to pass upon money which had not first been carefully examined by him. The charge of the gentleman indicates the pettiness of his case. I resent such a charge as false, as absolutely untrue. It shows how city officials have deliberately deceived, misapplied, pettifogged in the past. The chairman of that committee did his work the best way he could. He bills were not correct the committee members and no redress. And, while you are speaking about the chairman paying $32,000 last year, I might tell you that 1600 bills against the city last year were paid, and that those 1600 bills did not have the approval or signature of the chairman of the committee on accounts."

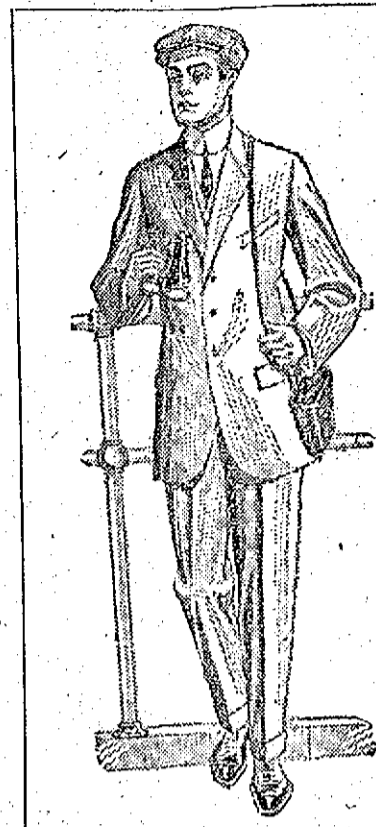

The mayor then suggested that the hearing be held in the day time, that it would be a long drawn out affair. It was finally voted to hold the hearing on June 10, beginning at 10 a. m.

Mr. Donahue wished the charges reduced to their simplest. Mr. Barrett answered that the charges would be presented, but not according to civil service rules.

BOY DROWNED

MOTHER FRANTIC WHEN SHE HEARD OF ACCIDENT

BOSTON, May 22.—Alvin Reynolds, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris A. Reynolds of Blaine avenue, Beverly, was drowned yesterday afternoon in the pond near the plant of the United States Machinery company in Beverly. Shocked when a gust hit a raft on which he was crossing the pond, he jumped into the water. After swimming a few yards he sank, 200 feet from shore.

With him on the raft was Francis Perkins, who could not swim and dared not try to rescue his friend. Other boys on the shore ran and told Mrs. Reynolds at her home, a short distance away. She hurried to the pond, and friends had difficulty in preventing her from jumping into the water in an effort to find her son. She was taken to the McKay schoolhouse and teachers endeavored to calm her as police dragged the pond.

GENERAL SHERWIN

HAS RETIRED FROM CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION

BOSTON, May 22.—After 25 years in the service of the commonwealth, Gen. Henry Sherwin, chief examiner for the Massachusetts civil service commission, has been placed upon the retired list, at his own request. Yesterday the members of the commission, with Secretary Warren P. Dudley, presented to Gen. Sherwin a silver loving cup, gold lined and standing upon an onyx base, as a token of esteem.

MARRIED WOMAN

IS ADOPTED BY HER STEPMOTHER

BOSTON, May 22.—Mrs. Susan L. Davis, widow of Walter R. Davis, of 123 Park street, Newton, was granted permission by Judge George F. Lawton of the probate court, East Cambridge, yesterday, to adopt her stepdaughter, Mrs. Alice Eleanor Davis Coppins, 36 years old, wife of William Towne Coppins, of 234 Park street, Newton, the latter giving consent to the adoption.

It is understood Mrs. Coppins will benefit to a large extent by the terms of the will of Mrs. Davis. It was said that it was for the purpose of avoiding any possible complications in the execution of the will that the adoption is to be made.

THIEF GOT $1000

HANDBAG SNATCHED FROM HAND
OF WOMAN

NEW YORK, May 22.—A daring hold-up occurred in Broadway between Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth streets yesterday afternoon. Several hundred persons saw a handbag containing $1000 in bank notes snatched from the hands of a woman by a thief who dashed into the crowd and escaped. That the handbag contained $1000 is vouched for by friends of the woman from whom it was stolen and who do not wish to reveal her name.

INJURIES FATAL

WOMAN CRUSHED BY A FRIGHTENED HORSE

NEW YORK, May 22.—Mrs. Wallace Percy Knapp died last night from injuries received when thrown from a horse late yesterday in Central Park. Frightened by an automobile, the horse reared, and losing its balance, Mrs. Knapp, breaking several ribs and causing internal injuries, fell. Mrs. Knapp was the wife of Wallace Percy Knapp, a prominent lawyer. Before her marriage Mrs. Knapp was Caroline Duncan Miller.

A BIG STOCK OF

Baby Carriages
and Go-Carts

AND SELL THEM NOW

To insure a good selection and prompt shipment we must place our order for these goods no later than January. We did, expecting our usual immense sale of carriages. We could not anticipate that the building we were in would be torn down. Now we must sell them at a loss to induce you to come at once and buy them. We have room to show only a few at a time. But we have over fifty in the store house and we can show you the style and price on the catalogue, and whatever you may select can be sent to your house the same day for your approval. If you don't buy here you certainly will pay $2.00 to $5.00 more elsewhere. Liberal discount even on credit.

SOLON W. STEVENS

HISSED AT BANQUET

By Southern Delegates
of the S. A. R.

BOSTON, May 22.—Southern delegates hissed the Hon. Solon W. Stevens at the banquet of the Sons of the American Revolution at the Hotel Somerset last night when he alluded to the manner in which the Sixth Massachusetts regiment was treated while marching through Baltimore during the Civil war.

Amid the storm of disapproval, Toastmaster Crandon arose and called for the song "Maryland, My Maryland." The Southern delegates joined in the singing, and the danger was averted.

Mr. Stevens attacked the recall of judges and judicial decisions. He said the people was not fit to decide the nice questions of law.

Edward S. Crandon was toastmaster. He welcomed the guests to the home of revolution. He continued:

"We meet in Boston to glorify the past. We do not boast of our ancestry but it is our privilege to draw inspiration from those stirring times."

Dr. Moses G. Parker was introduced as a soldier of the Civil war. He said: "We have added 100,000 to our society the last year who will be a power for good in our country. I trust that new inspiration will be gained from the visit to these historic spots."

HUSBAND'S STORY

HE SAYS THAT HIS WIFE AS SAULTED HIM

BOSTON, May 22.—Laceration of his feelings by his wife's appearance at his place of business and lectures which she gave him, with his employees, as an appreciative audience, were testified to yesterday in the divorce court by George E. Hall, cashier of the Collateral Loan company, who is seeking a divorce from his wife, Annie Gertrude Hall, on the grounds of cruel and abusive treatment.

According to Mr. Hall, his wife was an excellent marksman—spoons, dishes, books and silver dollars usually reaching some tender spot in his anatomy when thrown with his wife's unerring aim.
